

If you have any questions, write them down and ask them at the end or text them to 403-809-9364

Theme Verse (Colossians 2:7): “Therefore, as you received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him, _____ and established in the faith, just as you were taught, abounding in thanksgiving.”

Winston Churchill argued back in 1948 that, “In order to be faithful we need to _____.”

Part 1 – Looking Back Over the Past 5 Years

End of Life Care: Since the Supreme Court and Parliament legalized euthanasia, we have been sliding down a slippery slope where more and more Canadians qualify for euthanasia. Bill C-7, along with the Senate amendments, extended euthanasia to people with _____ and _____.

Freedom of Expression: Examples of freedom of expression limited by the government are Bill _____ and Bill _____. One example of freedom of expression limited by big business is censorship of _____.

Family: When it comes to family law in Alberta there are concerns because _____ language is _____, and protective _____ are _____. The premier of Alberta has this often-quoted line: “Parents, _____, know what’s best for _____.”

Pre-born Human Rights: MP Cathay Wagantall introduced a bill that, if passed, would have prohibited _____ - _____. The working plan that We Need a Law uses is called _____ Next _____ and it is an incremental strategy towards protecting pre-born children from abortion.

Gender and Sexuality: Bill C-6 bans _____ that tries to biblically help a young person suffering with gender dysphoria or is same-sex attracted. These conversion therapy bans started at the _____ level.

Freedom of Religion and Association: The fundamental freedoms listed in the Charter of Rights and Freedoms are: the freedom of _____, _____, _____, and _____. In British Columbia, the judge who heard the case about prohibitions on worship decided that the infringements on the four fundamental freedoms were _____. In Manitoba, ARPA as an _____ in a similar court case.

Part 2 – Looking Forward to the Next 10 Years

End of Life Care: Euthanasia is currently being extended to people with disabilities as well as mental illness. What demographic could be next as we slide down this slippery slope? _____. ARPA Canada recently released two policy reports, one dealing with _____ and the other with _____.

ACTION: Build relationships in your community

Freedom of Expression: Let's make sure that we use the freedom of expression that we have. ARPA does their best to equip Reformed Christians to express their convictions through the _____. Up _____ where you can find neat ideas like a flower _____ or a _____ display. A necessary food while on tour can be found at _____.

ACTION: See Speak Up booklet for multiple ideas

Family: The "We are Family" campaign is focussed on three "Rs" that are needed to support strong families: R _____ the foundational language, R _____ the safeguards, and R _____ the gender ideology.

ACTION: Participate in Family Ties campaign

Pre-born Human Rights: Tabitha is often reminding us about small _____ of _____. The We Need a Law campaign is focused on two initiatives at the provincial level: protecting families with a _____ diagnosis, and _____ involvement legislation when it comes to elective medical procedures.

ACTION: purchase the new Flag for Life!

Gender and Sexuality: ARPA encourages church leaders to reach out to their _____ as well as take part in _____ sessions hosted by ARPA Canada.

ACTION: Pray and prepare how to love our LGBTQ neighbours

Freedom of Religion and Association: We need to be thankful for government support for our institutions while we have it, but don't count on this support. Prepare your churches and charitable organizations so that they can operate without _____. Crises reveal what is _____ of us; the church needs to develop _____ before a crisis.

ACTION: Be prepared to draw lines in the sand